

Moving annual giving donors to Major gift donors and beyond

A strong annual giving program is the basis for our development programs. But how do we move these donors to major gifts and beyond? This session will focus on key points for an annual giving program and will provide ideas for you to cultivate and educate them into major gift donors. You'll leave the session with ideas to take back to your organization to begin moving these key donors to the next level.